A Presentation of Proclamation commending Waylon Bourgeois on representing Acadia Parish through his accomplishments in professional rodeo.

ACADIA PARISH POLICE JURY
PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Waylon Bourgeois, a native of Church Point, Louisiana, is a professional bareback rider who proudly represents Acadia Parish through his accomplishments in professional rodeo; and

WHEREAS, through dedication, grit, and years of hard work, Waylon Bourgeois earned the honor of competing at the National Finals Rodeo (NFR), the highest level of professional rodeo; and

WHEREAS, Waylon Bourgeois achieved a Top 10 finish at the National Finals Rodeo, placing him among the best bareback riders in the world and bringing distinction to Acadia Parish; and

WHEREAS, his accomplishments serve as an inspiration to the citizens of Acadia Parish and reflect the strong values of his community;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that the Acadia Parish Police Jury hereby recognizes and commends Waylon Bourgeois for his outstanding achievements and proudly celebrates his success.

DONE AND PROCLAIMED this 13th day of January, 2026.

A Presentation of Proclamation commending Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. for his leadership in advancing civil rights, equality, and social justice.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. devoted his life to advancing equality, social justice, and opportunity for all, and challenged all people to participate in the never-ending work of building a more perfect union; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King believed immensely in the power of individual action and collective hope to create a brighter future; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King's legacy includes such landmark United States Federal laws as the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Voting Rights Act of 1965, and the Fair Housing Act of 1968 and created a framework to ensure equality and advance justice in the years ahead; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King taught us to see the commonality of our dreams, our hopes and our fears - the threads, truths and dignity that bind us together as human beings; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King believed that "the arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends towards justice" - and that it requires all hands and all hearts to keep its course straight and true; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the need to model Dr. Martin Luther King's pursuit of unity, equity and justice to prevent all forms of discrimination including systemic racism.

WHEREAS, many citizens of Acadia Parish continue to benefit from the progress brought from Dr. Martin Luther King's movement.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved, that the Acadia Parish Police Jury, does hereby proclaim the third Monday of the month of January, as a day to seek inspiration for personal action by honoring the great legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and by observing this United States Federal Holiday to CELEBRATE, EDUCATE, ADVOCATE, and SERVE.
